

EFFECT OF THE QUAKE

It Uncovers Two Valuable Gold Veins.

THE EXCITEMENT SUBSIDING.

Light Shocks Still Occur, but They Cause Very Little Uneasiness—General News Notes.

Effects of the Quake.

Tucson, Arizona, May 7.—Another violent earthquake is reported in San Jose Mountains, forty miles south of Fort Huachuca, in Sonora. General Forsythe has sent an exploration party to investigate. The party has just returned from the Santa Catalina Mountain and report a full of water brought to the surface by the earthquake. This is a great boom for this region, as there are thousands of acres of good farming land at the base of the mountain, which only need water to make them valuable. Another effect of the earthquake is the opening of two large gold veins, which were discovered in Santa Catalina mountains, at a point where the whole side of the mountain slid down. Several prospecting parties left to-day, to locate the claims.

Excitement Subsidizing.

Benson, Ariz., May 7.—The excitement caused by the recent earthquake has about subsided. Light shocks occur every now and then, but create no damage, and little alarm. We have experienced several shocks to-day, the heaviest one occurring at 4.30 this evening. It lasted about ten seconds.

Terrific Damage by the Earthquake.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—The Call's Guaymas, Mexico, special to-night says: The earthquake of the 3d, started by a terrible volcanic eruption at Bahispe, destroying Monterrey, killing 150 persons and igniting the woods. There were also twenty persons killed at Oputo, by the falling of buildings. Many people were injured at Granadas and Guaymas, which towns were almost completely destroyed.

A Sure Enough Volcano.

NOGALES, Ariz., May 7.—After accounts received here tend to show that the report of a volcano having broken out in the Whetstone Mountains is true. A gentleman who arrived from Sonora yesterday says there is strong evidence of volcanic eruptions at a point about forty miles northeast of Magdalena, and he confidently stated that one peak is throwing out large volumes of smoke accompanied by streams of lava. Smoke and fire can be distinctly seen from several points along the line of the Sonora railroads. As far as can be ascertained, the volcano is in the Sierra Azul range. From the appearance of the heavy smoke that has occurred, it is believed other volcanoes will break forth in a few days.

The B. & O. Deal.

NEW YORK, May 7.—Interest in the Baltimore & Ohio deal has been revived by the story that a meeting of Baltimore & Ohio directors will soon be held, at which the resignation of several of the pre-ent directors is expected to be received and their places filled by members chosen by the Cincinnati, Hamilton & Dayton, Lake Erie & Western, and Richmond & Terminal Companies. Robert Garrett, O. E. Brice, Samuel Thomas, Henry S. Ives, George J. Seney, Alfred Sully and George H. Starnes are mentioned as among the members of the syndicate buying the control of the road, but it is said some of them will only have small interests in it.

Turning the Tables.

ST. LOUIS, May 7.—Fotheringham, the Adams Express messenger, who was charged with complicity in the robbery on the Frisco line last October, and whose prosecution was thrown out of the criminal court on a technicality a few days ago, filed a suit this afternoon against the Adams Express Company, Superintendent Damsel and Detective Pinkerton, asking damages in the sum of $100,000, $30,000 of which is claimed for false imprisonment, and $40,000 each for his indictment and arrest.

Powderly in Omaha.

OMAHA, May 7.—Grand Master Workman Powderly spoke to the Knights of Labor at the Exposition building this evening. The subject was: "Alms, Progress and Prospects of the Knights of Labor Organization."

The Number of the Victims.

PORTLAND, Oregon, May 7.—The total number known to have perished in the mining disaster at Nanaimo is 189, of whom eighty-two were Chinese and 107 whites. More than half the white men leave families.

Union Brewers Discharged.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—All the Union men, numbering about 200, employed in all the breweries of the city, were discharged to-night.

The Mothers' Friend Boys' Shirt Waists.

Our belt is taken off
The waist when washed,
Therefore, no buttons are
Ever broken or smashed.
With our waists the buttons
Are all on the belt,
And that fills a want
Which long has been felt.

And holds the boys' pants
Well up from his feet.

STOVE MAKERS CLOSE DOWN.

Three Thousand Moulders Thrown Out of Employment.

DETROIT, May 7.—A few weeks ago, when the stove moulders throughout the country quit work because they were ordered to work on the patterns of a St. Louis firm whose men had struck for an advance in wages, the men in this city remained at work. It was claimed by the moulders that the manufacturers had schemed for a strike in order to raise the prices and have

THE BLAME THROWS ON THE MEN.

On Wednesday of this week, the Manufacturers' Defense Association held a secret meeting in this city. To-day, in obedience to an order promulgated at that time, Michigan, Detroit and Peninsular stove companies shut down, throwing 2,800 men out of employment. It is thought the Cincinnati factories were also ordered to close, the men there having returned to work on the objectionable patterns.

That Alleged Fac Simile.

LINCOLN, Neb., May 7.—Following is furnished the Associated Press by John P. Sutton, secretary of the Irish National League of America:

"John Fitzgerald, President of the Irish National League of America, recently submitted to the London Times a fac simile of the alleged Parnell letter, together with documents in possession of Patrick Egan in the handwriting of Richard P. Egan, formerly proprietor of the Dublin Freeman, Treasurer William, Auditor Babcock, Mayor Sawyer, Postmaster Watkins, and cashiers of the city banks. To-day, the committee reported as follows: 'We, the undersigned, have at the request of John Fitzgerald, President of the Irish National League of America, carefully examined the fac simile published in the London Times of the 18th ult., alleged to have been written by Hon. Charles Parnell, also the letter, signed Richard P. Egan, addressed to Mr. Patrick Egan, dated June 25, 1875, December 6, and 22, 1880, January 14, 1881, and March 9, 1882; also the inclosure contained inside of the letter of March 9, 1881, and we have no hesitation in saying that the alleged fac simile and said letters and inclosure were written by the same hand.' The documents referred to were a letter from Parnell, which he tried to blackmail the League through the pretense that he had been offered 500 shillings to publish a fictitious article in relation to the League fund, prepared for the purpose of discrediting the League, and a letter to him from these agents, which he enclosed as a proof of his statement. In his letter to the treasurer of the League, Parnell said he was on the verge of financial ruin, and must have money. He would suppress the Dublin Castle article, however, if the League would make him a temporary loan of 300 shillings. These letters and a fac simile of Parnell's alleged letter to the committee above named believe to be in the handwriting of the same man."

Will Succeed Jordan.

BRIDGEPORT, Conn., May 7.—James Hyatt, national bank examiner, in company with United States Treasurer Jordan, and Honorable William Barnum, has started for Washington. It is reported here, on good authority, that Hyatt will succeed Jordan, and has gone to make preliminary arrangements for the assumption of the office.

Injunction Denied.

SYRACUSE, N.Y., May 7.—Judge Wallace, of the United States circuit court, in the case of Deener vs. the Baltimore & New York Railroad, sustains the demurrer and denies the motion for an injunction to restrain the defendants from building a bridge across Staten Island Sound.

A Denial.

PARIS, May 7.—The Steele denies the statement published in Le Paris, that a defensive alliance has been concluded between France and other powers. An official denial is also imminent.

Relief for the Families.

OTTAWA, Ont., May 7.—Government will be asked by members from British Columbia for a grant towards relieving the families of the miners killed at Nonimo, B. C.

No Disasters.

BUCHARST, May 7.—It is denied that disasters have occurred in Jassy.

Failed.

LONDON, May 7.—Finlay Brothers, publishers, have failed.

The Governors of Science.

THE GOVERNORS OF SCIENCE, BY HERBERT SPENCER. Fitzgerald, Publisher 24 & 26 Fourth Street, New York. Price 15 cents, post-free.

It is indispensable for the forming of clear ideas as to the real aims of science, its limitations, its validity, its authority, that its rise and development from lowly beginnings to its present commanding position should be clearly understood. The treatment of that subject requires both philosophic insight and wide acquaintance with the methods and results of scientific research, as well as an intimate knowledge of the history of civilization. In no one man now living are these gifts and these attainments so happily combined as in Herbert Spencer; and consequently his account of "The Genesis of Science" deservedly holds the highest rank among contemporary scientific-philosophical essays.

The Letter Halt.

Prof. Proctor has written an article on "The Letter H." The professor picked up a good many of these letters that were dropped by Englishmen before he came to this country.

MURDERS IN NEW MEXICO.

The Bloody Record of the American Valley.

ALBUQUERQUE, N. M., May 7.—The American Valley, in Socorro County, this Territory, has perhaps furnished more cold blooded murders than any other spot in the southwestern region. The report of another murder comes from there to-day, in which Wm. Slaughter, one of the wealthiest stock-raisers in New Mexico, was killed by two men named Youngblood and Atkins. Last year Slaughter was a member of the Socorro County grand jury and a large number of men were indicted for cattle stealing, among them Youngblood and Atkins. It was believed Slaughter was mainly instrumental in procuring the indictments and bad blood has existed between him and the accused men ever since. Yesterday, while the lifeless body of Anderson was dangling from the gallows at Socorro, Slaughter met these two men in the American Valley, about thirty miles from home, when an alteration took place, resulting in both men firing upon Slaughter, who was unarmed, and attempted to escape from the assassins by putting spurs to his horse, but they pursued, firing at him until he fell from his saddle, pierced by a half a dozen bullets, and expired without a groan. Officers are in pursuit of the murderers.

IT MUST COME QUICKLY.

War Between France and Germany Only a Question of Time.

BERLIN, May 7.—(Copyrighted by New York Associated Press, 1887.)—The Kreuz Zeitung says a mixed feeling of disgust and pity is aroused by the present state of France. The conviction is gradually growing that the efforts of those who undertook by quietness and common sense to refrain from adding to the popular passions, will not last long or be able to stem the tide. The exchange of verbal assurances of peace between German representatives and M. Flourens, French minister of foreign affairs, does not affect the belief in official circles, that WAR CANNOT BE LONG AVERTED.

The situation in Alsace-Lorraine increases the difficulty daily. The frontier posts on each side have ceased to exchange courtesies and act as if war might break out at any moment. The police for in Alsace-Lorraine has been strengthened, and special watches put on French malcontents. Under this system arrests and expulsions are increasing. Decrees issued by Prince Hohenzollern, Governor of Alsace-Lorraine, revoke the functions of Mayor Humbert, of Buschhorn. Among the notable expulsions are those of Herr Deligny, managing director of the Schillingheim factory at Treves, from Metz; Civil Engineer Remiel, from Benfeld; and two brothers named Schwitzbart, cabinet makers, from Strasburg.

The Metz Gazette announces that the authorities will dissolve all societies and clubs refusing to admit Germans, and will endeavor to enforce the exclusive use of German as the official language taught at Alsace-Lorraine. The Metz Gazette advocates a plan to colonize the provinces by a gradual expatriation, of French sympathizers, the purchase of land through the state, assisted by land bank settlement of German farmers and special grants to soldiers of the reserve. In the meantime, there is a state of siege in Alsace-Lorraine. The actual regime is quite as thorough. French artisans hitherto employed in the frontier towns are leaving, the French consular sending him to France. The French frontier populace indulges in a

HUNT AFTER GERMAN.

whenever they have a chance. An incident of this kind occurred at Belfort. A party of German excursionists who made a trip from Freiburg to Belfort were mobbed as soon as they were seen upon the public promenade. They were stoned and hooted by the crowd. A detail of gens d'armes had to escort them to the station, where they were guarded until their train started. The placidity of the proceedings in the Reichstag was disturbed by a single incident during a short debate on the supplementary credits. When the article relating to army provisions and supplies was being discussed, Herr Baedel, an anti-Semitic deputy, demanded that no Jew be allowed to furnish or contract to supply the army with provisions, munitions or any article whatever. He said the army did not exist nor the country provide money in order

THAT JEWS MIGHT ENRICH THEMSELVES.

Herr Struckmann, National Liberal, deplored the reappearance of Jewish hate. Confessional quarrels should not be obtruded upon the tribune of the Reichstag. Herr Breckel angrily responded that the Jewish was in no sense a confessional question. He was proceeding to deliver a speech when the President brought the discussion to a close, by declaring that he could not permit a debate on the Jewish question.

Energetic and Enterprising.

Among the new business firms that have sprang into prominence in this city within the past few months, that of J. W. Farrell & Co., plumbers, steam and gas fitters, 136 Main Street, ranks first and foremost, and the gentlemen comprising the firm are thoroughly established. Both members—J. W. Farrell and Ed. H. Rush—are practical workmen, who thoroughly understand their business, and are always on the alert for the latest improvements in the art of plumbing. They have lately received a large shipment of gas fixtures, drive-well pipe, wrought iron pipe radiators, hydrants, pumps and street washers. Jobbing of all kinds promptly attended to. Among the seasonal specialties at present offered by this firm is fitting of three-quarter inch three-ply garden hose, with couplings and nozzle complete, for $5.50.

HOW THE THING WORKS.

Curt Comment on the Working of the Bothersome Law.

Wheeling Register.—The interstate commerce commission is a godsend to the Associated Press.

Philadelphia Times.—It will be necessary to hear from both sides before an intelligent conclusion can be formed as to the merits and defects of the new law.

Rochester Herald.—But we do not believe, in spite of the fact quite apparent, that the railroads are doing what they can to make the law odious, that there will be a demand for the repeal of the statute.

New Orleans States.—But who shall say that the advance in the long haul is not purposely exaggerated to prejudice the law and that it will be much reduced when competition begins to work under uniform regulations?

Detroit Tribune.—The interstate commerce law is defective in still another point. It does not prohibit the young man who owns the road and sells peanuts and fruit on the train from selling 2 cents worth of decomposed apples for 10 cents. The real, gigantic monopoly of this thing isn't reamed at all.

LEFT IN DISGUST.

The Transcontinental Railway Officials Can't Agree.

FAR TOO MANY DIFFERENCES.

In a Collision—One of Them Must Han—Discharged—In the Queen's Dominion—Etc., Etc.

Left in Disgust.

CHICAGO, May 7.—At a meeting of the transcontinental railroad officials, to-day, nothing was accomplished in the way of perfecting an organization or agreeing upon rates. To-night, many of the officials left for home disgusted. Apparently, no system of differentials could be devised that would satisfy the many conflicting interests. It is probable that another meeting will be held in New York next week, although some of the lines insist that they will not be represented. Much of the time to-day was occupied by Commissioner Blanchard in an address explaining the position of the lines east of Chicago on the question of pro rata. A conference committee, to take up the subject with the eastern lines at some future time, was appointed.

In a Collision.

WASHINGTON, May 7.—A dispatch from D. R. McKee, Washington agent of the Associated Press announces that the Star Line steamer Lachampagne, which sailed from Havre for New York, to-day, has been in a collision. All the cabin passengers are safe. The dispatch was dated Havre. McKee was a passenger.

London, May 7.—The general transatlantic steamer Lachampagne, which sailed from Havre for New York, at 9 o'clock this morning, while returning, after having been in collision, ran aground. It is reported that twenty Italian immigrants, while attempting, regardless of discipline, to escape in the life boats, were drowned. The remainder of the passengers were safely landed. The steamer can be floated easily.

One of Them Must Hang.

DENVER, May 7.—Santa Fe special to the Republican: The reprieves of Jasper Thomson, of Socorro, and James O'Donnel, of Silver City, expire next Friday, and unless the Governor interposes, both will hang. The Governor was asked about the cases to-day, and said he had thoroughly investigated and had changed his mind in the Thomson case. He declares the latter must hang, unless new facts in his favor are shown before the 13th inst. O'Donnel's sentence will probably be commuted to life imprisonment.

Discharged From Custody.

SAN FRANCISCO, May 7.—Detective Home, of Wells, Fargo & Co., received a dispatch to-day from Detective Thacker, who is at Tucson, Arizona Territory, which informs him that the three men arrested at Bowie on suspicion of being concerned in the Papago train robbery, were discharged from custody to-day, as they had satisfactorily shown that they were innocent.

In the Queen's Dominion.

LONDON, May 7.—Electors of St. George's, Hanover Square, gave banquet last evening, in honor of Mr. Goschen, who represents that district in Parliament. The Margins of Salisbury presided. In a speech, Lord Salisbury said the government was deriving support from all sides. The best men of the Liberal and Conservative parties now saw nothing before them, but great subjects of imperial interest upon which they closely agreed.

THE PARNELL LETTERS.

Press Comments on the Much-Mentioned Missive.

Boston Record.—The London Times at least spares Parnell the indignity of putting a wood-cut of him in its pages.

Rochester Herald.—We do not believe that Mr. Parnell ever entertained such sentiments or that he ever wrote that letter.

Memphis Appeal.—Nothing so libelous of the character of the Irish leader could have been concocted as this, nothing so infamously unjust.

New York Herald.—If the sense of English justice is not wholly dead an act so dastardly will be followed by swift and condign punishment.

Pittsburg Chronicle-Telegraph.—We are inclined to believe that it was written by some practical joker, who is now quietly enjoying the uproar he has caused.

Pittsburg Dispatch.—That Parnell letter seems to have been produced with clear conviction that it was a good enough roorback until after the vote in the election bill.

Philadelphia North American.—On the whole, it is about the cheapest canard that journal could have found, and the Tories must be badly off to invent such a roorback.

Albany Press.—As published by the London Times, the letter alleged to have been written by Parnell approving of the murder of Burke in Phoenix Park, Dublin, some six years ago, is about the flimsiest piece of testimony ever produced by the most stupid falsifier.

New Haven Union.—Mr. Parnell's denial will be sufficient, and we may assume that it will not be long deferred. It will then be for the Times to substantiate the serious charge it has made, or else to admit that has perpetrated a base and cowardly slander, and is engaged in an infamous conspiracy against the reputation of the Irish leader.
